PATRIOTIC CARD PARTY A HUGE SUCCESS.

Paris and Bourbon county, people, as well as many from other counties, turned out en masse Friday afternoon, in a patriotic desire to help the women of the War Relief work realize a good sum at their "Patriotic Card Party."

The party, which was given in the big ball room at the Masonic Temple, from two to five-thirty, was a most enjoyable affair. The room was appropriately decorated with American flags, bunting and flowers. Patriotic emblems formed the decorations on the napkins and the tally cards. Forty tables of players participated.

D. S. HENRY.

MOVING DAY WILL SOON BE HERE.

The first of March, the time when there is a general changing of abode among farm tenants, will soon be here. This will necessarily cause some confusion for a time in address. THE NEWS asks those subscribers who will change their residences on or after March 1, to promptly notify this office, giving former addresses, as well as the new one. Prompt compliance with this request will be valuable assistance rendered the mail carrier on rural routes, as well as enabling THE NEWS to keep its mailing list correct. Please attend to this.

DON'T FORGET DATE OF SALE, FEBRUARY 28.

Farmers will miss a rare chance if they fail to attend the Silas E. Bedford sale on February 28. Read over the display advertisement in another column for a full list of the many things that will be sold. (1t)

By the terms of the will all the testator's estate, both real and personal, is devised to his widow. Mrs. Stout was named as executrix, and qualified for the trust.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Long years of experience have proved to the business man the value of advertising. That "It Pays To Advertise" has become recognized throughout the whole civilized world.

Through the medium of THE NEWS, a valuable diamond ring advertised in Friday's issue as lost, was found and restored to the owner, Mr. Jo S. Varden. It pays to advertise.

Through the same medium a silk dress lost on Houston avenue, was found and restored to Mr. Sim Levy. Mr. Levy advertised in THE NEWS. The finder saw the advertisement and restored the dress. It paid to advertise. Nearly everybody reads THE NEWS, and an advertisement placed in its columns is sure to reach all parts of the city of Paris and the county. It pays to advertise—in THE NEWS, especially!
